Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Official Form 106CSchedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245 filing fee

$75 administrative fee

+ $15 trustee surcharge

$335 total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,

most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

NOTICE: This Agreement contains provisions requiring arbitration of fee disputes. Before you sign the agreement you should consider consulting with another lawyer about the advisability of making an agreement with mandatory arbitration requirements. Arbitration proceedings are ways to resolve disputes without the use of the court system. By entering into agreements that require arbitration as the way to resolve fee disputes, you give up your right to go to court to resolve these disputes by a judge or jury. These are important rights that should not be given up without careful consideration.

I. PARTIES & PURPOSE: This is an agreement for legal services entered into on the date shown below between Law Office of Jason Blust, LLC, or one of its wholly owned subsidiaries (hereinafter "JB") and the individual (or married couple) assigned to the record number indicated below (hereinafter "Client") relating to legal services in relation to bankruptcy and debt relief. The contract is solely between JB, any assigns, heirs, or related entities that may be formed in the future and not any individual, partner, member or employee of JB. JB is a debt relief agency and law firm that files bankruptcy cases on behalf of its clients. JB DOES NOT REPRESENT CLIENTS IN DEFENSE OF COLLECTION SUITS.

II. CLIENT OBLIGATIONS: JB reserves the right to withdraw or terminate the representation in the event Client does not meet his/her obligations.

Active Participation and Communication: Client agrees to actively participate and communicate with any and all JB staff during the duration of the bankruptcy case. This includes immediately providing updated contact information and any changes to Client's financial situation including, but not limited to, any state court hearing dates or foreclosure sale notices. Client's signature on this Contract shall be authorization for JB to file a bankruptcy petition for Client via the Bankruptcy Court's electronic filing system and all other subsequent filings through the Bankruptcy Court's electronic filing system. Client agrees to receive documents and/or correspondence from JB via either email or first class mail. Client agrees that JB can contact Client at any reasonable time in JB's sole discretion via email, text message, telephone, or postal mail.

Payment of Attorney Fees and Costs/Arbitration: Client agrees to pay all attorney fees and costs as disclosed herein in a timely manner and that fees and costs, as disclosed must be paid before the case is filed with the bankruptcy court. JB only represents Client and Client controls the representation even if the fee is paid by a third-party. JB and Client expressly agree to resolve fee disputes via Arbitration (see Section IX).

The "flat fee" for representation in a Chapter 7 case is $ 1000. This fee is a nonrefundable* "advance payment retainer". In a Chapter 7 case, Client agrees to pay all fees and costs prior to the filings of the bankruptcy case with the bankruptcy clerk's office. Client acknowledges that Client will not have the protection of the Automatic Stay in Bankruptcy pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §362 until the bankruptcy case is filed. There may be additional fees charged by JB for delays caused by the Client, including Client's failure to pay fees in a timely manner, and failure to timely provide information and/or paperwork. Client expressly agrees that funds paid will be deposited in JB's operating account and are the property of JB.

The "flat fee" for representation in the Chapter 13 case is $ _____ plus costs. JB agrees to file the client's Chapter 13 case with the court for the payment of $ _____ and will accept the balance from Client's Chapter 13 payments. Any estimated chapter 13 monthly payment is subject to change and JB does not guarantee a particular chapter 13 payment. Costs include not only filing fee and other third party services, but also copying charges, bank transaction fee, credit card interchange fees, express mail, postage, etc.

In addition, there is a court filing fee totaling $ 375 (subject to change without notice) and optional document retrieval and financial counseling facilitation totaling $ 155 (subject to change without notice). Client expressly agrees that chapter 7 and chapter 13 fees paid are an advance payment retainer and not a security retainer and such arrangement is an express condition of JB's willingness to handle the case. An advance payment retainer is appropriate because work is being performed from the moment the firm is hired and continues through the relationship, even if a case is never filed with the court. In Chapter 13, the fixed flat fees and advance payment retainer are for pre-filing and pre-confirmation work. All fees paid are the property of the attorney and will be deposited into JB's operating account and are earned upon receipt, subject to refund only as provided in Section IV. Though the fee is fixed, in chapter 13's JB may apply to the court for additional fees, paid through the chapter 13 plan if there are extraordinary circumstances, such as extensive evidentiary hears, contested adversary proceedings, or appeals. See Section III for further details. Advance payment of costs may be held in a safe deposit box, a locked safe, a trust account, or any other secure place in JB's sole discretion until incurred and used to reimburse JB for payment. MB Client's initials.

Dishonored Payments incur a fee of $35 + any additional fees and costs incurred by JB as a result of dishonored or stopped payments. Failure to pay can result in JB closing the file and terminating the attorney-client relationship (see Section IV). In the event Client's chapter 13 is dismissed prior to full payment of attorney fees. Client agrees and expressly authorizes the chapter 13 trustee to pay any money held to JB for payment of the balance owed. Client agrees that JB may retain counsel to collect any balances due and will be responsible for payment of any reasonable collection costs and fees, not less than $400. Client authorizes the collection of any additional fees from the chapter 13 trustee (if applicable). Client expressly agrees that fees tendered to JB by personal check may be converted and processed as ACH transaction. JB agrees to pursue third parties who may be liable for payment of fees, but failure of JB to collect from third parties does not relieve client of responsibility for payment. Client agrees that non-basis services are billed at the firms' customary hourly rate as described in Section IV. Billable hourly rates are subject to change. Some non-basic services may be provided at a flat fee rate, as agreed between the parties (see Section III).

Full Disclosure: Client agrees to truthfully, completely and accurately disclose all assets and their value, liability and their balances, income and expenses to JB any on any and all bankruptcy paperwork. In addition, Client agrees to accurately answer any and all questions posed by JB and/or a representative or agent of the United States Trustee or as otherwise provided by law.

Provide Documentation and Follow Instructions: Client agrees to provide copies of any and all documentation requested by JB in a timely and organized manner. Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that JB has duties to the Court that require JB to reasonably seek documentary evidence that supports Clients' factual contentions before JB can sign off and file bankruptcy paperwork with the court. Such documentation includes, but is not limited to: pay advices for the six month time period before the filing of the bankruptcy case (client acknowledges that since the case is not filed immediately upon and signing of this contract that the six month time period changes as time passes), tax returns, property appraisals, recorded deeds (if applicable), recorded mortgages (if applicable), non-filing spouse's (or household member's) pay advices, and any other relevant information directly or indirectly related to the Client's financial condition. Client further agrees that he/she will read and follow all instructions provided to Client and incorporated by reference and made a part of this Contract for services.

III. LAW FIRM OBLIGATIONS:

Use Best Efforts: In consideration of Client's obligations as stated in Section III, JB agrees to use its best efforts to obtain a satisfactory result for Client by providing basic legal services in connection with a bankruptcy case on an efficient and cost-effective basis. Client expressly agrees that JB makes no guarantee regarding the outcome of the bankruptcy case, including but not limited to: ability and qualification for filing chapter 7 or chapter 13 bankruptcies, successful discharge of any particular debt, the amount of a chapter 13 plan payment, and/or whether or not JB can successfully reduce the balance of secured liens. JB offers its financial situation, and/or facts as revealed after review of documentation that could affect in any way any advice JB gives Client.

Staffing: JB structures its practice as a group practice. JB does not guarantee any minimum level of participation in a case by any individual employee, member, attorney, paralegal, or partner of the firm. Multiple attorneys and staff may work on various aspects of the case as assigned by JB in its sole discretion in compliance with all applicable rules of professional conduct. JB expects to perform the bulk of the work, but reserves the right to utilize other attorneys, paralegals, and litigation/clerical assistants where appropriate. In addition, Client authorizes JB, at its discretion, to have attorneys within the firm, or outside counsel, review Client's file to explore other potential causes of action client may have.

Provide Basic Bankruptcy Services: JB, in consideration for Client's obligations as stated in Section III, agrees to provide basis legal services as required to file either a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 Bankruptcy case, the Chapter determined as mutually agreed and indicated below. Basic legal services include, but are not limited to: pre-filing verification of bankruptcy representation, post-filing and pre-discharge contract with creditors, pre-filing advice and counsel to Client, advice during the case concerning the nature and effect of the applicable bankruptcy rules, including a reasonable amount of telephone calls and/or in-person meetings, exemption advice and planning; preparation and filing of a bankruptcy petition, preparation and filing of schedules and statements as required by bankruptcy statutes, rules, local rules, and any applicable standing orders of courts of competent jurisdiction, representation at the meeting of creditors pursuant to §341 of the Bankruptcy Code, representation at any confirmation hearings pursuant to §1324 (if applicable), setting valuation disputes prior to confirmation in Chapter 13, submitting information pursuant to requests from the trustee, including submitting information in response to case audits requested by the United States Trustee, negotiation and counsel in relation to reaffirmation agreements pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §524; and other regular and routine services not specifically stated, including additional terms as may be described in Section VIII, if applicable. Client expressly agrees that in Chapter 7, JB will not file the bankruptcy petition and schedules with the court until all fees and costs have been paid in full. In addition, JB will not file the bankruptcy cases with the court until all required documentation has been provided; all required documents are timely signed, reviewed, and verified, unless alternative agreements are mutually agreed in writing.

Client further agrees that the above-described fees cover basic services only. There may be additional fees for non-basic services in addition to those disclosed above. Subject to the applicability of any local rules, standing orders, or additional contracts, non-basic services for which additional fees may apply include, but are not limited to: Adversary proceedings pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §523 or §727; excessive phone calls or in-person consultations; motions to dismiss for client's failure to attend court hearings or failure to provide requested documentation; action to enforce the automatic stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §362; actions to enforce the discharge injunction; Rule 2004 Examinations; depositions; interrogatories or other discovery proceedings; contested objections to confirmation of a Chapter 13 plan; amended creditor schedules (typically $150 in chapter 7 + $30 filing fee in all chapters, subject to change); amended asset and/or income/expense schedules due to Client's failure to provide full disclosure; document retrieval services; facilitation of credit counseling and/or financial management courses; post-discharge services; appraisal services; contested matters, rescheduled §341 meetings because of Client's failure to appear at a scheduled meeting (typically $150 in chapter 7); motions to avoid liens (typically $260 per motion); proceedings to strip mortgages when applicable; and motions for redemption pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §722 (typically $600); conversion of a case from one chapter to another (requires an additional in-person meeting and results in additional reasonable fees and costs as mutually agreed); and/or proceedings to reopen a closed case for any reason.

IV. TERMINATION OF SERVICES (Refund Policy): The parties may terminate services at any time. Termination of services by Client must be in writing. JB may terminate services for failure of Client to fulfill any of Client's contractual obligations as identified in Section II of this agreement. In either event, Client may be entitled to a refund of part of the nonrefundable fee based upon quantum meruit. The factors considered include: time spent, including time spent answering telephone calls, processing, organizing and responding to any correspondence; case status; case progress; and the amount of work remaining to complete the case. Analysis of time is calculated in tenths of an hour increments, rounded up to the next tenth of an hour. Attorney time is worth $250-$450 per hour depending on the experience of the attorney performing the service. Non-attorney professional time is worth $75 per hour. Hourly rates are subject to periodic review and revision at JB's sole discretion. JB will also consider the progress of the case when determining a reasonable refund. It is impossible to determine a fair refund until a detailed analysis is performed on a case-by-case basis. Refunds, if any, will be sent to Client at Client's last known address within a reasonable amount of time. In the event Client is deceased or incapacitated, or if the fee was paid by a third party, refunds, if any, are the property of the Client and will only be released to the Client or an authorized representative of the Client's estate. In the event Client terminates services after a bankruptcy case has been filed, JB is given a reasonable time to file withdrawal and/or substitution of counsel documents with the clerk of court. JB expressly reserves the right to enforce a previous award of fees and to seek payment of any outstanding balance of legal fees. The parties expressly agree that JB's representation automatically terminates upon the closing of the case by the Clerk of Court. Client expressly agrees that JB is authorized to contact Client in the future, even after the conclusion of the case via mail, telephone, electronic mail or text message regarding any future JB products and/or services.

V. LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY: Client expressly agrees that signature on this contract grants JB a Limited Power of Attorney for the purposes of carrying out the bankruptcy representation. Such power includes, but is not limited to, the power to obtain Client's tax returns or transcripts from either the IRS or any person or entity consulted in regards to tax preparation; the ability to obtain information and discuss Client's situation with any of Client's secured creditors; and in the event the bankruptcy is dismissed or converted prior to completion, JB may apply funds on hand with the Chapter 13 trustee that would otherwise be forwarded to Client towards the balance owed to JB, if any, and/or the Chapter 7 fee, if applicable, by granting JB the right to endorse Client's name upon checks from the trustee. JB will provide an accounting of all funds received from the trustee and applied.

VI. RETENTION AND DISPOSITION OF RECORDS: JB will retain records as required by applicable law in your state, generally at least (5) years. JB reserves the right to store records electronically. JB encourages Client to keep and maintain copies of all bankruptcy related matters. Client may request a copy of the file by sending a written request. JB reserves the right to charge a reasonable retrieval and duplication fee of at least $35.

VII. RECEIPT OF MANDATORY NOTICE AND DISCLOSURE: The Bankruptcy Abuse and Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 require JB to provide mandatory notices/disclosures to Client. Your signature on this contract is an acknowledgment that Client has received, read and understood the two(2) separate documents entitled " §525(a) Notice", and "Important Information About Bankruptcy Assistance Services From an Attorney or bankruptcy Petition Preparer."

VII. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: The entire contract between the Parties is contained in this instrument. Parties agree to all of the terms and conditions set forth herein and acknowledge that they have read and understand this Agreement. In the event Client is filing a case in a jurisdiction where the local bankruptcy court has adopted any rule procedure or general order regarding the relationship between the Attorney and the Client, then such rule, procedure, Court Order, "Rights & Responsibilities Agreement," or "Model Retention Agreement" and its corresponding rights and obligations is specifically incorporated by reference into this Agreement and made a part hereof as additional terms, and both parties understand they must comply with its terms which supersede and control all provisions of this contract. Client signature on this document serves as an acknowledgement and agreement by Client that client has been informed of such a rule, procedure, Order "Rights and Responsibilities Agreement," or "Model Retention Agreement" and has agreed to be bound by its additional terms and conditions. In the event provisions of this Agreement contradict with the provisions in any Rule, Procedure, Court Order, "Rights & Responsibilities Agreement," and/or "Model Retention Agreement" the provisions of the Rules, Procedure, Court Order, "Rights & Responsibilities Agreement," or "Model Retention Agreement" would control.

IX. BINDING ARBITRATION: In the event of any controversy, claim or dispute between the parties arising out of or relating to this agreement or the breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation, unconscionability or validity thereof, including the termination of the scope or applicability of this agreement to arbitrate, shall be determined by arbitration in the county and state in which the consumer resides at the time of the agreement in accordance with the laws of the state of consumer's residence at the time of the agreement or agreements to be made in and to be performed in the state of the consumer's residence. The parties agree, the arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") pursuant to its rules and procedures and an arbitrator shall be selected by the AAA. The arbitrator shall be neutral and independent and shall comply with the AAA code of ethics. The award rendered by the arbitrator shall be final and shall not be subject to vacation or modification. Judgment on the award made by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the parties. If either party fails to comply with the arbitrator's award, the injured party may petition the circuit court for enforcement. The parties agree that either party may bring claims against the other only in his/her or its individual capacity and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative proceeding. Further, the parties agree that the arbitrator may not consolidate proceedings of more than one person's claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of representative or class proceeding. The parties shall share the cost of arbitration, including attorney's fees, equally. If the consumer's share of the cost is greater than $1,000.00 (One-thousand dollars), JB will pay the consumer's share of costs in excess of that amount. In the event a party fails to proceed with arbitration, unsuccessfully challenges the arbitrator's award, or fails to comply with the arbitrator's award, the other party is entitled to costs of suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee for having to compel arbitration or defend or enforce the award. Binding Arbitration means that both parties give up the right to a trial by jury. It also means that both parties give up the right to appeal from the arbitrator's ruling except for a narrow range of issues that can or may be appealed. It also means that discovery may be severely limited by the arbitrator. This section and arbitration requirement shall survive any termination.

X. SEVERABILITY: In the event any provision of this agreement is found to be unenforceable for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, only the offending clause shall be stricken from the agreement and the remainder of the agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

I/We hereby agree to and acknowledge all of the terms above and I/we retain and authorize JB to file a bankruptcy on my/our behalf:

Credit Reports: Warning: On June 4, 2004, a new federal law went into effect that prevents credit reporting bureaus from listing the names of medical providers on credit reports. Thus, if you are expecting to get a credit report to obtain the names of any medical providers, it won't work! The credit reporting bureau will list a collection agent. But, you will have to contact the collection agent directly to get the provider's information. Client First Bankruptcy, LLC will not be responsible for any omission of such creditors or the costs involved in adding creditors or amending a bankruptcy as a result of this new legislation. *Broker Price Opinions: Broker price opinions are obtained by a real estate professional familiar with the real estate market where your property(s) exist(s). They may or may not need to perform a physical inspection of the property(s). Broker price opinions are not included in package pricing and are available on an as-needed basis to keep your costs as low as possible. The extra cost should this service be needed is disclosed. Prices subject to change without notice. Costs by vendor are also subject to change without notice. In the event costs change, Client First Bankruptcy, LLC will use its best efforts to retain the original total price to avoid inconveniencing the client. This may change the amount of the handling/processing fee retained by the law firm. Costs and handling/processing fees are non-refundable once ordered on your behalf by the law firm.
